WILSHIRE EBELL THEATRE

THURSDAY, NOV. 11th, 1948

"BORSCHTCAPADES"

•BORSCHTCAPADES, conceived and produced by Mickey Katz, is a modern Yiddish variety revue designed to appeal to all persons of Jewish extraction of all age groups. The songs and humor are presented in both Yiddish and English in such proportion that the show can even be enjoyed by those who understand little or no Yiddish. Darr Smith, drama critic of the Los Angeles Daily News in his review of November 10, 1948, strikes the theme of the show when he says, "It is not traditional Yiddish theatre, nor is it traditional Yiddish vaudeville. It's more modern than either—a thing designed for people who understand little Yiddish or have a feeling for the richness of the language without knowing what it actually is."

•The cast of BORSCHTCAPADES consists of great Yiddish entertainers who are equally at home on the Yiddish or English stage. These people have achieved nation-wide recognition through their activities in phonograph recordings, stage, screen, and radio.

•BORSCHTCAPADES is, at present, a Los Angeles institution. However, in the future, it is the intention of the management to make this show a national institution which will tour from coast to coast. In the meantime, we will continue to present to the people of this community the greatest Yiddish performers whose talents are in keeping with the spirit of BORSCHTCAPADES. Many of the great Yiddish performers in the East have expressed a desire to appear on our show, and it is our intention to present them to Los Angeles audiences whenever they become available for West Coast appearances.
